Description

Sexual health is an essential part of physical, mental, and social well-being. Sexual weakness, reduced libido, erectile dysfunction, premature ejaculation and fatigue can become sources of concern for many individuals. Many people may suffer from sexual weakness due to mental stress, hormonal imbalance, anxiety, excessive masturbation, irregular lifestyle, malnutrition, overexertion and long-term co-morbidity. DP-25 (Sexual Neurasthenia Drops) acts as a sexual power enhancer and helps to restore vitality (vital force). The drops is also helpful in maintaining hormonal imbalance and eliminating sexual neurasthenia, impotence, premature ejaculation and general weakness. DP-25 (Sexual Neurasthenia Drops) is considered as safe for sexual health, free from side effects and offers a long-term effective solution.

Damiana: It is known as a natural aphrodisiac. It enhances blood flow to the sexual organs and stimulates the nervous system to increase libido in man and eliminates erectile dysfunction or impotency. Prolongs the time to ejaculation by regulating sexual excitement and improves sperm quality. It strengthens the nervous system in neurasthenia due to excessive anxiety, depression or stress, fatigue and exhaustion. It eliminates general weakness caused by excessive masturbation, long-term co-morbidity or irregular lifestyle. It also boosts vitality and enhances mental stimulation. It gives good results in mental depression or hormonal imbalance.
